Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation

2018/2019

Annual Report and Director of Philanthropy

Enriching Our Community
The Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation welcomed several new funds in 2018. Although the market has had better years, we are looking forward to a fantastic 2019. GVCF said a sad farewell to previous Executive Director Courtney Smith after nine years of service to the foundation. In November, GVCF welcomed new Executive Director Anne Bowling Tuckwiller.

Highlights of 2018:

- Assets exceeded $14.9 million
- Over $616,000 awarded as annual distributions, scholarships, and grants
- Thanks to a generous donation from the James F.B. Peyton Fund, we welcomed eight new endowed funds through our GVCF Endowment Challenge grant program. The goal of this program was to give small nonprofits in the area the opportunity to start an endowed fund. Applicants provided $2,500, to which GVCF provided a $7,500 match for each of the following organizations:
  - Greenbrier County Health Alliance
  - Greenbrier County Public Library
  - Greenbrier County Youth Camp
  - Greenbrier Valley Chorale
  - Main Street White Sulphur Springs
  - Renick Community Center
  - Rupert Public Library
  - White Sulphur Springs Public Library
- 11 grants were awarded to local nonprofits in the amount of $1,000 thanks to a donation from the James F.B. Peyton Fund
- 24 GVCF Mini-Grants were awarded for school-based enrichment programs in the Greenbrier Valley
- 23 GVCF Scholarships awarded to students from Greenbrier East, Greenbrier West, James Monroe, and Pocahontas County high schools
GVCF administered scholarship software that every public high school student in Greenbrier, Monroe, and Pocahontas counties used to apply for scholarships

Continued to serve as a resource center for nonprofit organizations in the Greenbrier Valley

Served as the fiscal agent for Homes for White Sulphur Springs, the Greenbrier Autism Community, McKinney Vento, the Continuing Care Retirement Community, and the WSS Fitness Center and Pool

As always, we are sincerely grateful for the generosity of our donors. The Greenbrier Valley has an exceptional philanthropic culture and we are honored to help facilitate charitable giving in the place we all love so much.

About the Community Foundation

The Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation is a collection of funds, each with its own fund agreements, donors, and philanthropic purpose. Responsibility for policy and direction is vested in a volunteer Board of Directors consisting of residents of Greenbrier, Monroe and Pocahontas counties.

What Does the Community Foundation Do?

Establishes endowment funds for individuals and businesses that provide money for charitable purposes in perpetuity. Sponsors choose the name of their fund and the recipients of its annual distributions. Income is distributed to the selected nonprofit organizations for years to come. This function is similar to creating a private foundation. As a publicly supported organization, GVCF offers maximum deductibility for income, gift, and estate purposes. GVCF only distributes income and never principal, whereas private foundations are required to distribute at least 3% of their net assets annually regardless of market growth.

Establishes endowments for nonprofit organizations. Charitable organizations benefit from endowment funds by allowing them to pool their resources for greater diversity of holdings and economies of scale in purchasing power. These endowments also reassure donors and granting organizations that the nonprofit has a guaranteed financial future.

Operates its own unrestricted fund which awards grants to nonprofits in the Greenbrier Valley. GVCF has used this fund to distribute roughly $165,000 to various charities in Greenbrier, Monroe, and Pocahontas counties. These funds are also used to award student scholarships at the four public high schools in our region.

Mission Statement

The mission of The Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation is to create a tradition of charitable giving and enhance the quality of life of the people of the Greenbrier Valley by accepting contributions, managing funds, and making charitable contributions.
The board and staff of GVCF is forever grateful for the life and service of founding member Philip McLaughlin.

COLLINS & COMPANY, CPAS

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS’ COMPILATION REPORT

To The Board of Directors of
The Greater Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation, Inc.
Lewisburg, West Virginia

Management is responsible for the accompanying statement of financial position of The Greater Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation, Inc. ("the Organization") (a West Virginia nonprofit corporation) as of December 31, 2018, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets (pages 1 and 2, respectively) for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We have performed a compilation engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. We did not audit or review the financial statements nor were we required to perform any procedures to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by management. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion or conclusion, nor provide any form of assurance on these financial statements.

Management has elected to omit substantially all of the disclosures and the statement of cash flows required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. If the omitted disclosures and statement of cash flows were included in the financial statements, they might influence the user’s conclusions about the Organization’s financial position, changes in net assets, and cash flows. Accordingly, these financial statements are not designed for those who are not informed about such matters.

4-H empowers young people with the skills to lead for a lifetime. It’s a research-based experience that includes a mentor, a hands-on project, and a meaningful leadership opportunity. 4-H reaches almost 300 young people in Monroe County and beyond through our community of 11 local clubs, an active Leaders’ Association, and 4-H Foundation. Programs are delivered by over 60 4-H professionals and 45 county volunteers. Young people experience 4-H through community clubs, after-school programs and 4-H camps. Based on their interests and guided by adult mentors, youth develop their own pathway in 4-H. They select from a broad menu of local 4-H programs. There are hands-on, learn-by-doing, opportunities for everyone.

Why Give to the Community Foundation?

Service: GVCF accepts and acknowledges all contributions. It establishes investment policies, conducts investment reviews, provides quarterly statements, and awards grants according to the parameters of each fund agreement.

Ease: Creating a fund is simple and quick, requiring minimal paperwork and no fees.

Security: Assets are managed by investment professionals at area trustee banks.

Diversification: Funds are aggregated to provide maximum diversity and strength in the investment portfolio. Every fund earns the same percent return regardless of size.

Accountability: Receipts and expenditures are independently reviewed and fully disclosed to the public. Copies of IRS filings and annual reviews are available in the Community Foundation’s office.

Perpetuity: Gifts become part of a perpetual trust with income continuing through the years to support projects chosen by the donor.

Economy: Accounting, legal, and other administrative expenses are covered by a modest charge against the income of each fund.

Tax Benefits: As a publicly supported organization, GVCF offers maximum deductibility for income, gift, and estate tax purposes.

How to Give to the Community Foundation

In addition to establishing a fund, gifts can be made to any of the existing funds. The Community Foundation accepts gifts in many forms including checks, publicly traded securities, and bequests.

Donations can also be made via PayPal on the “Donations/Contact” page of GVCF’s website: www.gvfoundation.org
